As I look at the white spot that my ring left on my finger
I realized that we really broke up
If this spot disappears, will I forget about you too?
As I erased my photos one by one
I realized it was really good, we're smiling
I think it's going to take more time

No one rush me
I can do well by myself
It's not easy ending things by myself
When it used to be the two of us
No one can understand my heart
Even if you're an adult
Like being sick with a nasty cold for the first time
No one will understand my aching heart

When I saw my thin face for the first time
I realized I was really struggling, I felt bad for myself
The more pitiful I get, the more you'll be forgetting me
When I saw the last text we sent
I realized I was so honest, I can't believe I was this earnest
I don't think I will regret

No one rush me
I can do well by myself
It's not easy ending things by myself
When it used to be the two of us
No one can understand my heart
Even if you're an adult
Like being sick with a nasty cold for the first time

No one will understand my aching heart

You're the great person
Who took my heart for the first time
I hope that won't ever change

No matter how much it fades away
Don't ever forget my name
I hope you will smile
When you remember me on some night
Even if I can't see you anymore
Even if I can't tell you all of these feelings
Even if I still have
Sad days remaining
