Something was in my eyes
Don't misunderstand it for a wink
In that moment

Our distance will disappear

Love is a special two-dimension
A mystery with an unknown depth
All the things I thought of
Seemed like they would all come true
But love is a strange dimension
A story that will smudge with tears
Though I wanna hold your hand

The sun was in my eyes
Don't misunderstand it for a wink
In that moment
Reality will disappear

Love is a special two-dimension
A mystery without a shadow
All the things I thought of
Seemed like they would all come true
But love is a strange dimension
Pages will turn with the wind
Although I want you to hear my voice

She she she she's pretty she's pretty
She's pretty she's pretty
I don't know, I don't know
My cheeks are getting red
She she she she's pretty she's pretty
She's pretty she's pretty
I want you to hear my voice

Though you can't hear it
Though it can't reach you
I will put my heart
In this balloon
Here, pop! There, pop!
Pop! Pop! Pop!
If I fold my heart and let it stand
It'll go past this dimension
Little by little, into your world

Love is a special two-dimension
A mystery with an unknown depth
All the things I thought of
Seemed like they would all come true
But love is a strange dimension
A story that will smudge with tears
Though I wanna hold your hand

She she she she's pretty she's pretty
She's pretty she's pretty
I don't know, I don't know
