

Nobody Cares

Loverboy

You stand here naked to the bone
Stripped of your self respect, alone
You've been an outcast all your life
Relationships pass in the night

Nobody cares for you
Nobody cares for you

Don't misinterpret what I say
The world is not your enemy
Alienations what you show
And how you feel
I'll always know, yes I'll know

Nobody cares for you
Nobody cares for you

Love never looked so good on you
You wear it well' yes you do

To be alone is what you fear
Alone together, I'll be near
Because we share a point of view
Millions wouldn't, but we do

Nobody cares for you
Nobody cares for you

Nobody cares, nobody cares
Like I do!!!!
