

Secrets

Loverboy

There's broken pieces of angels
Scattered out through the sky
Clouds are fallin' like rain to the ground
Makes it easy to cry
Every dream is a sad one
And I just can't understand
Why every wrong doesn't have to be right
But I still do what I can

CHORUS:

Oh, oh , one day I'll break down and tell you
About the secrets of the night
I'll lay down beside you
While you lead the way

I got something inside me
That I can't live without
I can't stop dreaming of you
It leaves me with no doubt
I see an arrow on a trip to forever
I feel a shot in the dark
It's so hard not to stay undercover
And keep from falling apart

(CHORUS)

Clear as the wind
I stare into your eyes
And I see nothing at all
Violet and velvet
Like moon in black light
I reach out as I take the fall.

(CHORUS)

One day you break down and tell me
About the secrets of the night
I'll lay down beside you
And you'll lead the way

Oooh!!! There's broken pieces of angels
Scattered out through the sky
Clouds are fallin' like rain to the ground
Makes it easy to cry
