Bleeding

Lovex

Few drops left of my hope I bleed in the name of faith decisions I've made, decisions of fools why am I bleeding for you

Missing the one who gave me nothing The one who dreamed my dreams away

Flaming pride in your eyes out of the ashes I'll build mine reason and feelings will never meet in me why am I bleeding for you

I couldn't live life like you could I'm still the one misunderstood I couldn't be the dream, the lonely heart to seal your scheme I couldn't live the life you love
