

Bye Bye

Low Roar

You kept me safe and held me tight
Laid your head upon my bed just next to mine
While my parents blamed it all on growing
You took me out beyond the clouds and showed me then

Where the heavens' floor, it gently meets the sky
Where the dreamers dream and the others go to die
Where the oceans' colors stories start to blend
With a universe so blue it never ends
You never told me why you chose
Just took me up and left the others down below
It's a mystery I guess I'll never know
Dave I'm so happy but I'll never let it show

Bye (bye, bye, bye), bye

This is goodnight
This is goodnight
This is goodbye
This is goodbye

I feel flustered I feel torn
Counting back the days, the months, the years since I was born
If you love me David please just let me go
You meant more to me than anyone will know

So bye (bye, bye, bye), bye
Bye (bye, bye, bye), bye

This is goodnight
This is goodbye
