

Just How It Goes

Low Roar

Jibber jabber jibber jabber jabbering
Walking towards the light that guides you home
And whisper whisper whispering whispering
Nobody hears us
Nobody knows

If they bothered to see from the caged up eyes
But nobody cares
Nobody knows

Well it's just how it goes
But it's just how it goes
It's just how it goes

A waste of breath a mindless stare
Simply a stone
To carry a weight into oblivion
Deep into the unknown
But we have no choice to where we're thrown
To get out
It's the desire
Just to wind up alone

But it's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
It's just how it goes
