

Once In a Long, Long While...

Low Roar

Once in a while
You end up being in town
Its doors open up for you
Step outside to look up and see
The sky's looking back at you
The lights rain down

Once in a while
You get a little help
You least expected too
Look in the mirror
A couple times you see
If all of it is true
And your mind's
On a bed of clouds

Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While

Once in a while
You get a little lost
In the fault between the trees
Stumbling out upon the waiting arms
Of the woman of your dreams
And your love
Comes raining down

Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While
Once in a Long, Long While
