

Sleep Peacefully

Low Roar

The actors they walk in
Through the same glass doors
Wash the blood
From their hands
They might need them again

While the fires fly
While we lose our fucking minds
You sleep peacefully

It's build and it's design
Take what's yours and make it mine
Don't be surprised
When it all
Comes crashing down

Move your hands
From your face
Eat your pride and your mistakes
Then sleep peacefully
So peacefully
