

Beat Of A Different Drum

Lower Class Brats

when i was a younger lad, they said follow me,
imgaine all the peace you'll find in conformity,
now that i am older,
im more self-assured,
i march to a beat of a different drum, a beat you've never heard.

[Chorus:]

dont need a leader im not a sheep, and i will never succumb, i'll always march to a different beat, the beat of a differet drum.

you can lead a horse to water but u can't make him drink, u can lead a human by the nose but you cant make him think i may be lost sometimes but i don't follow anyone i'll always march to the beat the beat of a different drum you say that we're cliché, just a passing trend,

i say ur afraid of our beat, afraid to be our friend i'll stand and fight, i wont run i'll never go out of style i'll lead the pack, wont fall back i'll go the extra mile
