Superhero

Lower Than Atlantis

Life is like a fight
Between good and evil
Darkness against light
Will I choose a side?

Seems to be TV
Makes things look black and white
On coloured screens
But they look grey to me

Wish I was a super hero
I would save the world
I would be the good guy
Kill the bad guys, get the girl

Fighting for the picture of
The helpless I would help
How can I save anyone
When I can't save myself?

Not sure why I pissed my life
Fighting crime, wearing tights
Only be a super me
When I close my eyes

Wish I was a super hero
I would save the world
I would be the good guy
Kill the bad guys, get the girl

Fighting for the picture of
The helpless I would help
How can I save anyone
When I can't save myself?

Well, I am just a man
Skin and bone and flesh and skin and bones
Do what I can
If I find the strength within
But it's a cold world we live in

Wish I was a super hero
I would save the world

Wish I was a super hero
I would save the world
I would be the good guy
Kill the bad guys, get the girl

The helpless I would help
How can I save anyone
When I can't save myself?
