

Intifada

Lowkey

Intifada, intifada
Intifada, intifada

Once upon a time in the little Middle East
There was a fascist settler entity on a killing spree
They pillaged the innocent villagers to steal their dignity
It's simple, this literal misery is a thrill to industry
In case you're wondering, the place, it's Filisteen
From Little Italy to Greece and the streets of the Philippines
They know the name, even Algeria felt the guillotine
'Cos ignorant idiots sit and wish to bring them to their knees
When it's like that they even kill children holding white flags
It's quite mad, clear the only choice is to fight back
No, we are not scared, no, you cannot kill us
Resistance forever on behalf of those not with us
A moment of silence for DJ Khaled
It's clear the counter-culture has formed and they seek to harm it
I bet they fear this verse and the words of the people chantin'
More than the songs that charted through feeble, deceitful artists, this is

Intifada
(You can call it what you want, it's an)
Intifada
(This is more than just a song, it's an)
Intifada
(People aching to be free, this is)
Intifada
(More than faces on TV, it's an)
Intifada
(When we shut down your factory, it's)
Intifada
(And shut down your university, it's)
Intifada
(Your politics is too cordial, it's intifada if your genocide's the new normal)

Once upon a time across the cities of the west
Millions were stressed to see civilians oppressed
By billions invested in these industries of death
They tried to talk, but the politicians didn't seem impressed
With horrid lies, try remove me from Spotify
But the bottom line's I refuse to be colonised
Go against the system can jeopardise your salary
Call us the generation that terrorised the factories
Shit, Drake and Kendrick wouldn't know there was a genocide
You would think forty thousand people never died
There's no excuse now 'cos everything is televised
Or on the phones where the rest of us are mesmerised
Isn't it quite amazing, all this synchronisation?
We will force their hands though, the liberals like waitin'
They didn't sympathise though, until the skies caved in
With enlightened bombs bringin' civilisation

Intifada
(You can call it what you want, it's an)
Intifada
(This is more than just a song, it's an)

Intifada

(People aching to be free, this is)

Intifada

(More than faces on TV, it's an)

Intifada

(When we shut down your factory, it's)

Intifada

(And shut down your university, it's)

Intifada

(Your politics is too cordial, it's intifada if your genocide's the new normal)