Lowlife

I don't think it's worth it
To start a fight
But it is just the principal

You got the watches
It shows
But no time in this world
All the signs they say sold
Waiting on that payment
It's getting old
The same old story I've told
Now all the pages don't hold the same old statement

Living is a struggle at the best of times
So I'll be needing just what's mine
You took the piss and took your time
But I'll take it back, I'll take it back
Why can't you give back my money
Time after time you've just aired me
Walking the streets like a VIP
But you're broke

I don't think it's worth it
To start a fight
But it is just the principal
Every excuse I've heard it
I've heard it so
It is just the principal

Course I've got it if you need it
Even if I don't ever see it
You're running out of time trying to steal it
But I would have given it freely
I mean it
Now I know what I know
I will never trust you again
Now I know what I know

I would never call you a friend
'Till the end I would have backed you up
But you lied
You pretend you don't give a fuck
That's enough
Tough love it's time to face the facts
I ain't asking again
Give my money back

I don't think it's worth it
To start a fight
But it is just the principal
Every excuse I heard it
I heard it so
It is just the principal

Where's that money
Where's that cash

I don't think it's worth it
To start a fight
But it is just the principal
Every excuse I heard it
I heard it so

I don't think it's worth it
To start a fight
But it is just the principal
Every excuse I heard it
I heard it so

Where's that money
