

Sirens

Lowlife

I hear the sirens
All around me
Helicopters
Are above me
And the search lights
Trying to pin me
And the road block
Ain't gonna stop me

I'm feeling frustrated
Why am I alienated
It's like I create all these problems
'Till my mind can't take it
The world long awaited
Longer than I've skated
For my words that I spit to be translated

My sanity well
He needs to be debated
But first they gotta hold me down
And get my brain located
The walking disaster
Who drowns his pain in laughter
I think I'm almost out of breath
We used to run worlds faster

Drive high- get a DUI
Wrong side of the road
Don't care if I die
Don't ask me why
I tell no lie
I count these blessings
As my last goodbye

Los Angeles
London
New York
Always in your phone
But I ain't really tryna talk
So roll it up
Pass me the tray
I'm on the freeway Like OJ

I hear the sirens
All around me
And the helicopters
Are above me
And the search lights
Are trying to pin me
And the road block
Ain't gonna stop me

Everywhere I walk there's been history
Everywhere I go it's a mystery
I leave my phone at home
The less you know-
Less misery

And I promise my return like you can't believe

Forget about the fast lane
Forget about my gold chain
I'm moving 100 miles per hour
And I'm rolling south
Forget about my call name
I'm rolling up my Mary Jane
I'm soaking up the smoke
Before it melts in my mouth

If I see you riding out
And you're next to me
You best believe you will feel this vasectomy
'Cause I never lie about
Who I'm meant to be
I'm running now
But jus' wait
'Cause you're next to be

You get blown up
If you show up
Get smoked like a roll up
Poke holes like a donut
If somewhat undercut
Don't phone up
This verse is now over like
Like just shut up

I hear the sirens
All around me
And the helicopters
Are above me
And the search lights
Are trying to pin me
And the road block
Ain't gonna stop me

I hear the sirens
All around me
And the helicopters
Are above me
And the search lights
Are trying to pin me
And the road block
Ain't gonna stop me
