

don't fix it

Loyle Carner

Wasting time
Left another day, day behind me
Change your mind
In the same place that you couldn't find me
Stay the night
Sofa cushions on my feet don't hold the right feeling
Come inside, tryna hide me

Say, yeah
Don't fix it for me, watch it broken with me
In the coldest parts of the past, throwing frisbees
Getting older still we come here closer, give me
Sweet kisses on my cheek, 'cause when I'm gone you'll miss me
Yeah, don't fix it for me, watch it broken with me
Wishing we was on that wishing well throwing fifties
Uh, holding whiskies, cold smoke to miss me
Yeah, promise if I broke, then you'll fix me
Fix me, yeah

Wasting time
Left another day, day behind me
Change your mind
In the same place that you couldn't find me
Stay the night
Sofa cushions on my feet don't hold the right feeling
Come inside, tryna hide me

Ay, watch it broken with me, don't fix it for me
Hold them phantoms in the past before they walk towards me
A picture that you've drawn me upon that plane, ignore me
Yeah, a hundred years until you're touching forty Watch it broken with me, don't fix it for me
Yeah, read the same book and told them different stories
I, I touched the sun that paints a picture for me
Recognised reflections when that river saw me
Saw me, yeah

Wasting time
Left another day, day behind me
Change your mind
In the same place that you couldn't find me
Stay the night
Sofa cushions on my feet don't hold the right feeling
Come inside, tryna hide me

Oh, just another day behind me
Just another day behind me, me
Just another day behind me, me
Just another day behind me, behind me
Just another day behind me
Oh, just another day
