

Check, yeah

Yo, what am I here to do?
Sat on my own, I'm reminded of you
I'm reminded of time that we lose
Every time that we settle down, nights in the blue
Lights of the moon
Same one that you see when you sleep when you look outside of your room
Yeah, if I cry, then I'm doomed
'Cause time goes slow when you're hiding your wounds
Hide in the womb, howl like the dogs and wolves
No time to be finding the tools
Our fathers are fools
Realise the rug gets pulled every time that a son gets called
So let these be the words that you scream
When your mind grows older, you know what you mean
Trust, when you've been where I've been
When you've seen what I've seen, yeah

You can howl at the moon
Howling at the moon
Yeah, you can howl at the moon, yeah
Yeah, I'ma howl at the moon
Awoo

Check
Man above done enough
Be in hell if he was really one of us
Late nights, I was sitting on the bus
Thinking what the fuck, why I got this pity in my guts?
Before the body that I'm living in is dust
I was in a rush tryna get the city in my clutch
We were just a couple kiddies growing up
Me, I was tryna earn a buck
Yo, I dont give a fuck 'bout the little man in a minivan
Don't flirt with the mini skirt in the mini tan
Fall back when the feelings hurt, she was filling in
For the villain in the movie she was living in Saying come home, but I'm halfway around the globe
And I can't even find my phone
Tilt my head to the stars in the blue
Hope that you're looking up too

And yo, I howl at the moon
Howling at the moon
Yo, I howl at the moon, yeah
I let you howl at the moon
Howl at the moon

Yeah
So as the time goes on and my mind gets old
Some stories that never get told
So I made mine known
Wrote mine down in gold
No way they can hide my roll
You can find my soul in the piece of the minds that you hold
In your hands, in your ears, and your soul

Right from my dome
Face that reminds me of home
Nothing more wise that I know
Yo, they should've warned us
He's the Horcrux
I can see it in his eyes, he adores us
A little rhyme, more time that it bought us
Say I'm fine were the lines that they taught us
And yo, I'm on
And through the days, I survived
The young man raised by the tribe
Only way that I'm getting out of this life alive
Keeping you by my side

I howl at the moon, yeah
'Cause I live through you
And yo, I howl at the moon, shit
And yo, I howl at the moon
'Cause I live through you
And yo, I howl at the moon

Yeah, uh
Howling at the moon
Feel it light my face
See inside your womb
I know you're miles away
But still I'm wide awake
The sky rotates
I hate my phone
But I keep it safe
The right time
Different place
The same line
Different days
The face I love
Pixelate
I fall asleep
My mistake
