

in my mind

Loyle Carner

We paint like the picture of deceit
Blood's still rushing to my feelings, yeah
You spin like the tyres on the street
Shine like the fires underneath them, yeah
I watched the sun rising in the East
Sets as the tyres fall asleep in, yeah
I'm running from the belly of the beast
Admiring the guy I wanna be then
All I saw was me
Yeah all I saw was me
Me me me me me me me

In my mind again
Lost another minor friend
Something's in my mind again
Guess it's looking like the end

But why it's always me
Why I never think before I'm speaking, yeah
I'm tired of the people that I meet
Why I leave the message on the beep then, yeah

The sunblush hold me in my sleep
Swimming as I'm slowly in the deep end, uh
Became the guy I know that I can be
While them other people ain't believing
Why it's always me
Why it's always me
Me me me me

In my mind again
Lost another minor friend
Something's in my mind again
Guess it's looking like the end
It's like the end

Yeah
You paint the picture of deceit
The blood's still rushing to my feelings, yeah
You spin like the tyres on the street
You shine like the fires underneath, yeah
I watched the sun rising in the East
Sets as the tyres fall asleep
I'm running from the belly of the beast
Admiring the ones I wanna be
All I saw was me
