LP

You are my one desire
Who knew two waters make a fire sign?
And our worlds, though always in a spiral
Are taking me higher

It's the truth that makes you melt
Path to heaven always goes through hell
I don't like to kiss and tell
But you take me higher

Let's have a conversation
It's hanging in the air, I hang on every line
Let's have a conversation
I know you really care and so do I

If you talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me
Just say what's on your mind
Just talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me
Just say what's on your mind

Oh-whoa
Let's have a conversation
Oh-whoa
Let's have a conversation

Chances are it will be hard
Let's discuss what takes us far apart
I'll admire you still from afar
I'll never get tired

Let's have a conversation
It's hanging in the air, I hang on every line
Let's have a conversation
I know you really care and so do I

If you talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me
Just say what's on your mind
Just talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me
Just say what's on your mind

Oh-whoa
Let's have a conversation
Oh-whoa
Let's have a conversation

It's just communication
I need some patience
Oh
Just communication
Not a revelation

Let's have a conversation
It's hanging in the air, I hang on every line
Let's have a conversation
I know you really care and so do I

If you talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me

Just say what's on your mind
Just talk to me and look at me, and say another word to me
Just say what's on your mind
