Rainbow

LP

Caught a little light and watched it die, but it's alright now
I'll just will it for a while
Keep my world inside, oh why
Does it seem so hard to say, oh why

Am I so afraid of rain just coming down again
Us drowning in the landslide?
There's a child in your eyes
That most times I can't find, oh why
Do you seem so far away, oh why
Am I so afraid?

All the storms we've been through
And lived to see the light of day
I search the skies within you
Just to see a rainbow
But there's no clear horizon
And I know more are on the way
Is it worth surviving
Just to see a rainbow?

Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow

Silhouettes of honesty hang onto me like hindsight
And regrets don't count today
But they wait and they wait, oh I
I know you wish that I could change, I won't lie
Sometimes I feel the same

All the storms we've been through
And lived to see the light of day
I search the skies within you
Just to see a rainbow
But there's no clear horizon
And I know more are on the way
Is it worth surviving
Just to see a rainbow?

Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow

Our colours collide and our coluors divide
But I keep my eyes on tomorrow
Fool or gold, your kaleidoscope is mine
And you know that I'll follow

'Cause all the storms we've been through
And lived to see the light of day
I search the skies within you
Just to see a rainbow
But there's no clear horizon
And I know more are on the way
Baby, it's worth surviving
Just to see a rainbow

Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow
Just to see a rainbow
