

Ready To Be

LP

You know that I've been feeling so restless
And it's like I'm breathing in the same old air
Baby, but you don't gotta listen
When you know there's always something better out there

Suddenly you let all the light in, suddenly I'm ready to shine
There's always gonna be consequences
Hey, you know that everybody's waiting in line
Everybody's waiting in line

I'm ready to be what you see
And put it all on the line
I'm ready to know completely
At least I think I'm ready to try

Seeing everything from a distance
Then you get close enough to look for a cure
Somewhere there is a wave in the ocean
Waiting for its turn on the shore, waiting for its turn on the shore

I'm ready to be what you see
And put it all on the line
I'm ready to know completely
At least I think I'm ready to try
At least I think I'm ready to try

It's a constant fight just living life in such a world
We never learn, we don't see the signs
And every time I try before I'm compromised
And every time it doesn't seem right
You're changing every day

I'm ready to be what you see
And put it all on the line
I'm ready to know completely
At least I think I'm ready to try

I'm ready to be what you see
And put it all on the line
I'm ready to know completely
At least I think I'm ready to try
At least I think I'm ready to try
