

Two Face

L'Rain

Walked up to your door will you let me in?
Hello loneliness, brotherly kin
When you close your eyes, do you think of me singing every word
Holding both your hands, crying by your side?

I can't build no new nothing, or no new life
No new nothing for me
I've gotten all of my bricks aligned
But mortar's escaping me
I can't build no new nothing, no new life
No new nothing for me (Stay wandering)
I've gotten all of my bricks aligned (My mind numbing)
But mortar's escaping me (Say something)

Palms make future plans, you might let me in Goodbye Mercury, loverly sin
When you close your eyes, do you think of me
Singing all your words softly?

I can't build no new nothing, no new life
No new nothing for me
I've gotten all of my bricks aligned
But mortar's escaping me
I can't build no new nothing, no new life
No new nothing for me (Stay wandering)
I've gotten all of my bricks aligned (My mind numbing)
But mortar's escaping me (Say something)

Stars are created by fire
Yeah, fire in my mind [?]
Well, this, this is not about dying, don't talk about the heat
beneath your feet, but the heat beneath your God
Now, now I didn't come to stay here to spread lies
I just wanna spread truth, know what I mean?

Where is the love, you know what I'm saying?
Alright here we, we wanna ignore God
You know some people you feel like that
But I'm like, I wanna feel around, maybe (K, yeah)
