

Things I Thought Would Last Forever

L.S. Dunes

Alone
Better that way
The craving that I have to numb
I smoke
Violent haze
With matching bite marks
Roving shadow rise

All the words in history
Aggravate to based in longing
All the wounds that I forget
Things I thought would last forever

It's shaking in its cage
It's shaking in its cage
It's shaking in its cage
Get up

If we trace the wave
Exists a twin fire
What's keeping you awake
Upon the screen light
Find and split the days
A deadly soundbite
What's keeping you engaged
Upon the screen light

Don't hold onto yourself
The answer will sing
To all beautiful things

Dimes will cut the blue stain glass
Adaptation is a mystery
No one here gets out alive
Things I thought would last forever

It's shaking in its cage
It's shaking in its cage
It's shaking in its cage
Get up

If we trace the wave
Exists a twin fire
What's keeping you awake
Upon the screen light
A deadly soundbite
What's keeping you engaged
Upon the screen light

Who am I
Who will lie
Who am I without?
Who will lie
Who will lie
Who am I without?

Evacuate and take the stage
I'm not gonna die that way
Inoculate the oculus
I'm not gonna die like this
Evacuate and take the stage

Never again, never again
Never again, never again
