

You Deserve To Be Haunted

L.S. Dunes

We all forget our magic
Make it up as you go along
We all forget our magic
Make it up as you go along

Lights out
We'll reflect in shock
Our Father lost in heaven
How shallow is thy name
Oh, Mother, why'd you leave me
When I needed you the most?

The forces within, it grows in the reverse spin

My delusion
Resist the impulse
The futile cause
The final move
A haunted cross
Will the sickness spread
With the witness gone?

Divorced from the pavement low
I never met a mistake
I couldn't wait to make
I never met a mistake
I couldn't wait to make

The voices within, it growls in the desert wind

My delusion
Resist the impulse
The futile cause
The final move
A haunted cross
Will the sickness spread?

My delusion
Resist the decision
A futile chant
The final move
A haunted cross
Will the sickness spread
With the witness gone?

[illegible]

What will you rely on?

My defense, my defense, I insist you listen
