

Is It Over

L.T.D.

Even the surest things, they change
Baby, you've proved that time and time again
A harmony you rearranged
As if it was just some silly game
Just as a sunny day turns to rain
Baby, you wore down on me cold pain

I'm giving more love than I'm getting in return
Is it over?
I'm giving more love than I'm getting in return
Is it over?

I thought it was just the beginning
Of a long lasting love affair
I thought my search was over until I discovered
That you did not even care
I thought we shared was beyond compare
Until the onset of our trouble

I'm giving more love than I'm getting in return
Is it over?
I'm giving more love than I'm getting in return
Is it over?
