

Say That You'll Be Mine

L.T.D.

Say it
Oh, come on
Say that you'll be mine
Say it, say it, say it
Say it
Oh, yeah
Say that you'll be mine

I've had my eyes on you or such a long time
I think it's time for me to make a move
I want to be your loving man forever
And spend my days just being close to you
Oh, it seems to me that you should be my lady
Just say the words I want to hear you say

I want you to say that you'll be mine
I'll love you for all times
For you I'd walk the line
If you will just be mine

Haven't you noticed me staring at 'cha
I jut can't help it, you excite me so
You got me going 'round and 'round in circles
I see your face most everywhere I go
Oh, it seems to me that you should be my lady
Just say the words I want to hear you say

I want you to say that you'll be mine
I'll love you for all times
For you I'd walk the line
If you will just be mine
Just say that you'll be mine
I'll love you for all times
For you I'd walk the line
If you will just be mine

I told my friends that I was gonna ask ya
They laughed and said I didn't have the nerve
But here I stand in front of you, my baby
Waiting to hear you say these simple words
Oh, it seems to me that you should be my lady
Just say the words I want to hear you say

I want you to say that you'll be mine
I'll love you for all times
For you I'd walk the line
If you will just be mine
Just say that you'll be mine
I'll love you for all times
For you I'd walk the line
If you will just be mine

Say it
Oh, come on
Ah, say it

Oh, yeah

Say it
Say it, say it
Say that you'll be mine
Why don't you say that you'll be mine
Say it
Oh, yeah
Yeah...
