

I've got no one left to impress
I swear I'm trying to do my best
The holes in my shoes
Match the holes I've made
With the habits I can't check
But every grey cloud has a shitty lining
When the rain is falling down
With all the dumb stuff
That I did when you know
I was feeling inside out

Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
I've wanted, I've needed nothing so desperately
Than depth of a feeling
Drowning and struggling

I swear I'm trying to do my best
The holes in my shoes
Match the holes I've made
With the habits I can't check
But every grey cloud has a shitty lining
When the rain is falling down
With all the dumb stuff
That I did when you know
That I was feeling inside out

Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
I've wanted, I've needed nothing so desperately
Than depth of a feeling
Drowning and struggling

I've been kidding myself for the longest time
Go on and be somebody else
Still not feeling fine

Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
Wasted and faded (Feeling inside, feeling inside out)
I've wanted, I've needed nothing so desperately
Than depth of a feeling
Drowning and struggling

Wasted and faded (I've got no one left to impress)
I swear I'm trying to do my best
Wasted and faded (I've got no one left to impress)
I swear I'm trying to do my best
