

Fire

Luca Hänni

Baby, you're fire
My lonely desire
I need you now
I need your fire

Mm, your hot, hot heat
I can't give up the pain
You got me on repeat
Raging wild and free
Dancing in your flames
Burning third degree

My heart beats fast and slow
Your clothes that match your goddamn coat
And my rib cage might explode
If I can lie, can't let you go

Baby, you're fire
My lonely desire
I need you now
I need your fire
Baby, you're toxic
You slip it all in
I'm needing you now
I'm needing your fire

Every single day
You're blowing up my phone
But what you tryna say?
'Cause every single night
I end up alone
Get out in the rain

Oh, my heart beats fast and slow
Your clothes that match your goddamn coat
And my rib cage might explode
If I can lie, can't let you go

Baby, you're fire
My lonely desire
I need you now
I need your fire
Baby, you're toxic
You slip it all in
I'm needing you now
I'm needing your fire

(Fire, fire, fire) Your clothes that match your goddamn coat
(Fire, fire, fire) If I can lie, can light you go

Baby, you're fire
My lonely desire
I need you now
I need your fire
Baby, you're toxic
You slip it all in
I'm needing you now

I'm needing your fire

Baby, you're fire

Mhh, yeah

My lonely desire

Mhh, yeah
