

Loving

Lucero

Another night full of heartache
They just don't want to let us be
Nothing much except outcast love
But it's enough for me
It's enough for me

I won't let them keep us apart
'Cause love can't be bound by chains
They might come for us in the dark
But it's enough to stay
It's enough to stay

I could tell them I don't love you
I could prove my heart is true
It might not be good enough for them
But I just wanna be good enough for you

Remember how it felt the first night
Our love we can't afford to lose
I'll take care of you for the rest of my days
If that's enough for you
If that's enough for you

I could tell them I don't love you
I could prove my heart is true
It might not be good enough for them
But I just wanna be good enough for you

And I hold, hold the loving
I said hold, hold the time
I said hold, hold your heart there
Next to mine

So one more night here without you
And then to you I will come back
They're ain't ever taking me away again
I've had enough of that
I've had enough of that

I could tell them I don't love you
I could prove my heart is true
It might not be good enough for them
But I just wanna be good enough for you
Just wanna be good enough for you
Just wanna be good enough for you
