Well Well Well

Lucinda Williams

Well, well, here it is again
The way I feel is down but then
You know if you toss a stone in a river
It sinks to the bottom, it won't rise up either

Hey, hey, hey, this here's a test And it may not be the last I tell you what I have to wonder When I get lost and I end up yonder

Huh, huh, huh, ain't this a shame
Don't this beat all you've ever seen
Just when I thought I was getting it up there
Things went and got a whole lot tougher

My, my, my, how do you figure
The reason why we always differ
But hey now, you know what I mean
If you hang around trash you can't come out clean

Well, well, here it is again
The way I feel is down but then
You know if you toss a stone in a river
It sinks to the bottom, it won't rise up either

Well, well, well Hey, hey, hey Huh, huh, huh My, my, my
