

Borderline

Lucius

Maybe in time
You'll be starting over
On the other side, you'll walk the line
It's no kinda life, looking over your shoulder
You'll only find what you're trying to hide

Even when you say that it's over
Trying to convince me you're doin' fine
I can see that borderline

Maybe in time, when hell freezes over
I'll be surprised, you'll be satisfied
Honey, I'm tired
Looking for the old you
The one that I would recognize

Even when you say that it's over
Trying to convince me you're doin' fine
I can see that borderline in your eyes

Even when you say that it's over
Trying to convince me you're doin' fine
I can see that borderline in your eyes

Every time you lie
Every time you lie
Every time you lie
