

Pulling Teeth

Lucius

Pulling back the shades to see
Morning comes so quickly
Oh, 10 o'clock, we reunite
Guess we pulled an all-nighter last night

Pulling on this cigarette
It's rolled so tight, I cannot get
The breath I need, my one regret
My day is feeling like this cigarette

Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
Something's coming through
Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
It will come to you (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)
Ooh... (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)

Pulling teeth out one by one
We're still getting nothing done
We made our peace, the time will come
We're still pulling teeth out one by one

Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
Something's coming through
Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
It will come to you (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)
Ooh... (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)

The receiver's insufficient
And the speaker's problematic
The signal's getting weaker
And I'm thinking we could do without it

Oh baby, I'm afraid we may've caught the static
O-oh baby, I'm afraid we may've caught the static
O-oh baby, I'm afraid we may've caught the static
O-oh baby, I'm afraid we may've caught the static

Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
Something's coming through
Something's coming
Hold it there just a little bit longer
It will come to you (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)
Ooh... (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)
Ooh... (s-t-a-t-i-c, static)
(i-c, I see it's a sea of static)
