

BUSY DAY

LUCKI

(Wake up Filthy)

Ayy

Sorry I missed your call today

Ayy, ayy

Sorry I missed your call today

Still look pretty from far away

Put yourself all in my shoes, watch one step will fall away

I'm in the city, I sleep with a semi, I shoot a video, switch the car away

I'm in the hood but in a Suburban, I pop three cause one weren't workin'

Hurtin' my feelings and did it on purpose

All cause I missed your call today

He in a Jeep, but not with the kit

I'm over East but North with your bitch

I miss my mama, but living too quick

Send her some money for watchin' the kids

Ran out of money, I ran out of Lucki

I be with no No I.D. like Nas and shit

Heart hurt first and a lot of shit

Try-hard bitch, we don't honor it

I'm in a kitty, I don't got a kitty

I'm really just thinkin' of Chyna next

She gettin' pretty and I'm gettin' richer

Fan just tagged me in one of our pictures

Never sip Act, I'm really a baby

Put three letters on a pretty Mercedes

Too much pride but really I miss her

Fan just tagged me in one of our pictures

Sorry I missed your call today

Sorry I missed your call today

Still look pretty from far away

Put yourself all in my shoes, watch one step will fall away
