LUCKI

Ain't no more time on my hands
And makin' back money that I couldn't wait to spend
Gettin' high with demons, tellin' God I repent
Lookin' at me? Depends
'Cause Lucki, you the chosen one
You know don't nobody owe you none
Gave her access to your soul for none
I seen my favorite friends foldin' up
That's 'cause Lucki, you the chosen one
Two times two equals fuck niggas
That's how you will die because you trust niggas
They crazy but when you love 'em, then you stuck with 'em

Codeine with blood, drinkin', what the fuck you sober for Same niggas jerkin' turned to Chief Keef
I made my first hundred, they wanted to be me
Ayy, Ghazi with a mill', only time will tell
SoundCloud rapper got the means, just tryna buy and sell
But shit was two of me, she miss me but she through with me
She see all this money, bitch don't ask me 'bout no jewelry
That's what she warned me, only love the newer me

Fuck it, Lucki you the chosen, ayy
That's 'cause Lucki, you the chosen one
You know don't nobody owe you none
That's 'cause Lucki, you the, ayy
Lucki, you the chosen one
You know don't nobody owe you none
Gave her access to your soul for none
Seen my favorite friends foldin' up
That's 'cause Lucki, you the chosen one
Ain't no more time on my hands
And makin' back money that I couldn't wait to spend
Gettin' high with demons, tellin' God I repent
Lookin' at me? Depends
'Cause Lucki, you the chosen one
