

Find Me

LUCKI

(I'm Working on Dying)

Ayy, ayy, ayy (Oogie Mane, he killed it)

I went through a drought, see who really love me

I'ma buy a bitch a, before I buy a pint of Wock', ya hear me?

Copy, yo, ayy

I went through a drought, see who really love me

I'ma buy a bitch a purse so I buy a pint of Wock'

I made an empire all by myself

I was legendary by the time I met Ghazi

Bag my money with the cards I'm dealt

Love STR8 trucks, feel I'm beating everybody

Told all my New York hoes I'm in the bity

2016 Xans and a big body

It's enough money spent now, we just plotting where to go

But I gotta find myself

Want to give me all to you

But I gotta find myself

Two Perc' 30s, I melt

Five percent, feel like John Cena with the belt

Niggas ain't seeing me

Ho can get the addy to 'bnb

How you find trust when there's too many people?

Risk your life for some niggas that'll leave you

Bitch keep crying, say I'm MIA

I already know fu shit in my way

But I gotta find myself

Risk your life for some luck to be replaced

Freebandz Tune, can't put me in my place

Opps paranoid, niggas just tryna race

Ho lake shore, hit a ho red key

Only finesse you if you let me

Niggas ain't seeing me

Ho can get the addy to 'bnb

But I gotta find myself

Want to give me all to you

But I gotta find myself

Five percent, feel like John Cena with the belt

I went through a drought, see who really love me
