

GOODFELLAS

LUCKI

(And this beat from Cash, not from YouTube)
I been poppin'- uh, ayy, ayy
I been poppin' beans 'cause I don't love nobody, uh
And I'm booked up overseas, so I been detoxin', uh I got Chrome Heart on my sleeve, she still broken probably She got Neptune on her tee, she do what she want
And they still love me over east, even though I don't pick my p hone
Got the good fellas for me, bodies in the trunk Bodies in the trunk, but it's a Martian

Man, ayy
Her best friend said fuck me, she know it ain't that simple (I gotta watch the fuck up)
Her best friend said fuck me, she know it ain't that- uh
Her best friend said fuck me, she know it ain't that simple
I just found a new-new, I say that 'cause I dimples
Alexis must know voodoo, she stood all on my mental, uh
You still ain't call me back, you must want me to retire the ac tin', uh
Keep it in the streets, but that's when I been hardly rappin'
Even thought it ain't that deep, round up everybody been starre d for hats
Man, uh, look, uh
Karma must be racin' me, dream ho on a date with me
I would tell the truth but when I do, you get to hating me
Just had deja vu, you said that too, even though you fakin' it Called me out the blue, you seen the news, you said it's danger ous
Waitin' on your apology, know you ain't gettin' that out of me
Hide from all the cameras, all they do is damage us I just flew you home, you said that LA was startin' to wear on ya
I was with a bitch, I told her "Dip," because I care too much
(I been poppin' beans 'cause I don't love nobody, right)
(That's my problem right now)
