

Ice Cold

LUCKI

I pop blue percs, watch how ever that go
Uh, yuh, yuh, ay

I just sit back
I pop blue percs, watch how ever that go
This that
I give no fucks, so ion never come home
Who been praying for me, who just blowing my phone
She demanding me because I do whatever I want

Lowkey fans of me, remember your face I don't
I'm here randomly, you just spacin' my phone
Yuh, ay, where ever I go they go
I sip red and wock, tryna quit everyday though
In a whip so fast, ain't nothin' I can't do
I'm off red with wock, sometimes I can't lose

I just sit back
And the truth hurt, but thats whatever you know
This that
I don't give no fucks, so ion never come home
Who gon ride for me, who just calling my phone
She demanding me because I do whatever I want
