

LOVE IS WAR

LUCKI

(Wake up, Filthy)

Hey

It's like you got come in peace

They all want war

She don't feel my pain, every time I hide it

Distract myself in the store

Know I be on lean, since you left it's been codeine galore

Want pretty pink cups everywhere I go, this shit ain't a dream
no more

Want you in my jeep, got too much pride can't say your name no more

Want pretty pink cups everywhere I go, I'ma count this shit eit her way it go

Living a lie, I want em to see

Stress me still but I'm letting it be

I miss the red it go with the key

She in the bed, I'm pouring more lean

We ain't never speak if you leave it to me

Stole my heart now leave with the key

You ain't give love, I remember that shit

Money on drugs had to deal with that shit

Internet hoe wanna show off for clout and I barely want her in that shit

Old nigga hood hate when they kills that shit

We ain't never speak if you leave it to me

We'll be good if you leave it to me

Bougie ass hoe ain't even got her feet wet, but she wanna schem e with me

Still got problems that I ain't even greet yet, it used to be e ating me

High in my eyes, I'm really a geek

Wokstar life so I'm leaving it pink

Everything you say true until it's not, so live it up

Hmm, ayy

Everything you say true until it's not, so live it up

Tryna see who really do it for the looks and for the love

It's like you got come in peace

They all want war

She don't feel my pain, every time I hide it

Distract myself in the store

Know I be on lean, since you left it's been codeine galore

no more

Want you in my jeep, got too much pride can't say your name no

Want pretty pink cups everywhere I go, I'ma count this shit eit
her way it go

her way it go
