

OUTRO

LUCKI

(Wake up, Filthy)

Been so high it feel like you meant everything you said to me
Got so high it feel like you meant everything you said to me
Ooh, ayy
Got so high it sound like she meant everything she said to me
Got so high it sound like you meant everything you said to me
Got so high it sound like you meant—
Ayy

Got so high it sound like you meant everything you said to me
Pray to god I scare away these demons up in my sleep
She ain't mine but I treat it like she really meant for keeps
Hear that sound, she love being on my story, she in my jeep Wonder why you lie, when I gave you my heart and lost the key
Wonder how you drive, 'cause boy you barely woke she think you sleep
How every time she get her revenge, can't get no sleep
G23, but I'm a lover boy
He can have her, no tug of war
Why all the girls that fuck with me be the main ones that I've got nothing f or
She moved on that stuck with me and it ain't one habit I can't afford

Hmm, knock it off and let me know something, like, really, ayy

Is you gon' make me call you back to back
If you gon' hurt me then make it quick
She quote my song when she write back
Cut off shawty, then we get rich then how I end up falling right back Heard that story, get off my dick, she took up for me and I like that Tell lil' shorty, lil' bitch you a witch 'cause I ignore you 'cause she like that
She from the trenches but got on Rick
She say he different but keep him a stick
She say it hurt her whenever she see me, broke my heart that's when I got li t
I pop 'em Percs and then I'm on TV wondering what I'ma say to the kids
That boy would kill me but he wanna be me, tried so hard just to make it mak e sense
She say she feel me but don't wanna see me, notice her friends still be liki ng my pics
I just text your phone, is you something to me
She moved on I let her go
She wonder how it got close to me and these killers be like everywhere I go
This lifestyle it chose for me, I cross my dots either way it go
She say she miss the sober me, boy why you wanna be like Mexico?
Haha, ayy
She know she let go of me, she scared to hear me on the radio
Ayy
She say she miss the sober me, boy why you wanna be like Mexico?
Ayy, ayy

Got so high it sound like she meant everything you said to me
Got so high it sound like you meant everything you said to me
Got so high it sound like she meant everything you said to me
Got so high it sound like she meant everything you said to me
Got so high it sound like she meant everything, you scared of me
Pray to god I scare away these demons up in my sleep

Got so high it sound like she meant, ayy
Got so high it sound like you meant everything you said to me
Pray to god I scare away these demons up in my sleep
She ain't mine but I treat it like she really meant for keeps
