

Ha, ha
Aye, aye

Seen too many faces for starstruck, aye
I was on the plane when you called me, aye
Maybe not from the heart, but it's all me, aye
Maybe you could wake up on the floor

I don't preach, everything I need
Are you ready?
Look too far to see, woah
Aye, aye, aye, uh
I don't preach, everything I need, look too far to, uh, uh
Hey, uh
Hey, hey, uh

I don't preach, everything I need, look too far to see
She gon' reach, ho gon' be a ho, me gon' be a me
Baby, please, you know how this go, only one of me
Baby, woah, aye, aye, uh
Tech I bleed, on my daddy's see, ho finnessin' me?
Nigga, please, I just got this pint, all the way from the Ps
Gettin' money, I been kinda clean, JaJa do my deeds
Mouths to feed, and more hearts to break, want me, you don't need
Die or cheese, 50 in a month, fuck up out my dreams
What you mean? I'm just one of one, I'm gone, you believe
Let me see, take me out this world, love me like at least
Miss my ex, she don't want the fame, she want her degree, woah

Seen too many faces for starstruck, aye
I was on the plane when you called me, aye
That's not from the heart, but it's all me, aye
Maybe you could wake up on the floor

I'm preventing coughs 'til my luck up, aye, woah
I'd rather you fake it than adore me, aye, woah
Seen too many faces to be starstruck, aye, woah
I was with some bitches when you called me, aye, woah
I don't do no liquor, that shit all cheap, aye, woah
I think I went missin' when you called me, aye, woah
I need you to listen, 'cause it's all key, aye, woah
I don't even remember when you called me, aye, woah
