

These hoes gon' flock like they used to
I don't even smile cause I'm used to it
Purple ain't no drought nigga who knew
I don't tell these hoes nothing bout you
You could hit the road you could pout too
Tell me what you heard, I don't doubt you
Tell me what you heard, I don't doubt you
Dirty money, sippin wok, what is new?
Lie again, say I quit, just for you
Stomach hurtin I been splurting just for you
Invite all these people in just for you
Bitches and that money they gon' hoola hoop
How you acting funny in a drama movie
You say you a God who you running to?
Look me in my eyes I'm the son of who?

These hoes gon' flock like they used to
Purple gon' drop nigga what's new Yell In my ear I'm like "who you?"
I take two percy's and I move thru
Baby I'm just gone in the wind now
Hi Tech, I don't need a friend now
Sex, money, drugs what I live by
I need more percy's not a friend now

Dirty money sippin wok what is new?
Lie again, say I quit just for you
Lie again, say I quit just for you
