

USED 2 BE

LUCKI

Wake up, Flilthy

You just said you loved me, I know who really love me
Thinkin' 'bout what happened if I'm higher than I would be
Really with the mafia, we tell the world we cousins
Wonder if it's meant or I'm lyin' through my teeth
Super red seater with some ash on the seats
She gon' see me callin' and get mad at me

Flawless as I used to be
Wonderin' if you root for me
You look like the reason that I'm rappin' on this beat
Milligram Matrix, you diss shit or you take shit
Young black kings storin' white man faces
Niggas breakin' rules over sluts like a creep
How you wake up lonely but you laugh in your sleep?
Only trust my brothers, can't get stabbed by the weak
I don't feel pain or a bitch, I'm on pinks
Sing to the hoe like Tink, scammers say they lost the Jeep
Neptune take it too far, Lucki think he made that beat

Hmm, ayy, ayy
I don't even like that hoe, it's just my ego, ain't lose no sleep
Tryna teach all my fans how to win because that emo shit for the weak, look

You just said you loved me, I know who really love me
Flawless just like me but soul really ugly
Fast life, hypebeasts and seatbelts for the pussies
You say you live like me, I know you really wasn't
You just said you loved me, I know who really love me
Thinkin' 'bout what happened if I'm higher than I would be
Really with the mafia, we tell the world we cousins
Wonder if it's meant or I'm lyin' through my teeth
