

City Of God

Lucky Boys Confusion

Never met a night like this before
Gunshots are singin' me to sleep
Don't say a word
That you can't take back
Heartbreak breaks monotony
Even though it hurts now
Even though it kills
Even though it kills
At least it pays the bills
At least I've got my pills
To drive me to my grave
Yeah, I've got my friends
They drove me far, far away
At least I've got my pills

If this is the city of God
Then why aren't we safe here at all?
If this is the city...

Never met a day that was so cold
The sun rises, afraid to wake the dead
Don't take a life
That you can't give back
Sex sells, so does destiny
A destination breakdown
Even though it sells
Even though it sells
A ticket from this hell
The ringing of this bell
Reminds me I'm alive
Only to hit the street
Before the police arrive
At least I've got my pills

If this is the city of God
Then why aren't we safe here at all?
If this is the city
God damn it all
God damn it all

Time
Would be better standing still
I'm taking pride in blood I've spilled
When nobody is watching
Life (It's standing still)
Would be better standing still (Blood that spills)
I'm taking pride in (Becomes a pill)
Help me out
Help me out

If this is the city of God
Then why aren't we safe here at all?
If this is the city
God damn it all
God damn it all
God damn it all
God damn it all
