

Knives (Watch What You Say)

Lucky Boys Confusion

Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening

Don't trust a soul
I promise you can make it alone
Even if you fake it
Even if you put on a show
'Cause look who stabbed your back now
And look who's taking you for a ride
All the bodies in the trunk now
It looks like they got something to hide

Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, they got you hanging
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory now

I promise that you'll make it okay
'Cause all they see's a victim
I just see a pawn in their game
No, they can't take it back now
This rumor's got a life of its own
So leave 'em in the past now
Leave 'em in the past, in the past with your nightmares

Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, they got you hanging
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory
Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, they got you hanging
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory now

You know they're sharpening their knives
Now you're running out of time
And you're starting to lose control
You know you're hanging by a rope
And they know you're losing hope
Now you're starting to lose control

Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, they got you hanging
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory
Woah oh, watch what you say
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh, they got you hanging
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory

Woah oh
Your best friends are sharpening their knives
Woah oh
Hanging by a rope, hanging from a memory now
