

White Collar

Lucky Boys Confusion

Aren't we all worried about things that don't matter?
So take a chance and press against this glass 'til it shatters

Show up, get paid
Hold on to your breath while you plan your escape
Show up, get paid

'Cause they're on to you
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah
'Cause they're on to you
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah

Aren't we all stressing out without any meaning?
Chasing goals put to you without any feeling

Show up, get paid
Hold on to your breath while you plan your escape
Show up, get paid

'Cause they're on to you
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah
'Cause they're on to you
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah

Staring down from their glass ceilings
[?] slaving for the weekend
Looking up, do you ever get the feeling
We're entertainment slaving for the weekend
Staring down from their glass ceilings
[?] slaving for the weekend
They're staring down and we're dancing on the floor

Am I entertaining you?
Am I entertaining you?

'Cause they're on to you
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah
'Cause they're on to you
Because they're on to you, woah woah
'Cause they're on to you
(Staring down from their glass ceilings)
'Cause they're on to you, woah woah
([?] slaving for the weekend)
'Cause they're on to you
(Looking up, do you ever get the feeling)
Cause they're on to you, woah woah
(We're entertainment slaving for the weekend)
