

Cherry Forest

Lucky Daye

She lookin' like cinnamon, ooh
Long black heels bought by no man, ooh
Two jobs so she can try and bring him home
'Cause, girl, you know he tied up by the man

Her love is the pinnacle of the world, it's Heaven-sent
Oh, thought they could tell it, "Shut up," it keeps spreadin'
It got all the people talkin' 'bout it, but who could do without
All the circles pointin' back to where we started?

Waitin' in the storm
Underneath the cherry forest
Time brings changes in the story
Find your way back to your glory
Ah, ah

That beauty's so evident, ooh
They wanna worry your pretty lil' skin, ooh
Hold your soul in a world oh so cold
One day, we'll all find a wonderland (I know we will)

Our love is the pinnacle of the world, it's Heaven-sent
All the circles pointin' back to where we started

Waitin' in the storm (Waitin' in the storm)
Underneath the cherry forest
Time brings changes in the story
Find your way back to your glory

I'll be waitin' all night
Somethin' tells me everything is alright (Everything is alright)
I'll be waitin' just fine
Cherry drops keep fallin' just to bloom in springtime (Yeah, yeah)
I'll be waitin' all night (I'll be waitin' all night)
Somethin' tells me everything is alright (Oh, it's right)
I'll be waitin' just fine (I'll be waitin', oh)
Cherry drops keep fallin' just to bloom in springtime (Spring)
I'll be waitin' all night (I'll be waitin', oh)
Somethin' tells me everything is alright (Alright)
I'll be waitin' just fine (I'll be waitin' just fine)
Cherry drops keep fallin' just to bloom in springtime (Bloom in springtime)

And the cherry forest symbolizes new beginnings
Things that are of old ending
So watch where you're takin' your time
Watch how you're spendin' your time
Show how you're spendin' your love
I'ma show how I'm spendin' mine
