Lucky Daye

She said all she need is a puff and a drink
That'll help her think
She hit me on my phone at night
She tried that shit twice, hm
I know she didn't know that I was laid up
I know she didn't know I'm gettin' paper
I know she didn't know I gotta spend time
And that's the only reason she is never mine
But I wish things was different, good thing gone missing
Some things I don't mention, wish we could just dip in Get over that hill and wish you could just follow my lead, follow my lead

Who you call on?
Who you call on when you need this?
Need this
I think it's time for something new

Too long
You keep tryin', but you fightin' too long
Heard you been lookin' for some, oh Lord
Throw it on me, I can run it back for so long

You know I be that right slow, let me light roll
Baby, eyes low, turn your lights low
Ah, baby, oh
Know you gon' let me know
Let me know, know, know

You gon' make me feel all the heat, bae
You comin' by me, late
You don't even talk that easy
Bring heat, baby
'Til fall asleep, yeah
Everyone don't deserve
Sleep, ooh
Everyone don't deserve
Sleep

Trying to make this make sense
Sayin', "Save me"
Let's just make it, oh
Let me take it, just say it
Layin' and shakin' (And shakin')
Let's just make it, yeah, oh

Don't ask, eyes wide shut, you do that
You come and fill up on me, no gas
And even sittin' silence, to me, is true facts

You know I be that right slow, let me light roll
Baby, eyes low, turn your lights low
Ah, baby, oh
Know you gon' let me know
Let me know, know, know

You gon' make me feel all the heat, bae
You comin' by me, late

You don't even talk that easy
Bring heat, baby
'Til fall asleep, yeah
Everyone don't deserve
Sleep, ooh
Everyone don't deserve

Trying to make this make sense
Sayin', "Save me"
Let's just make it, oh
Let me take it, just say it
Layin' and shakin' (And shakin')
Let's just make it, yeah, oh

Lord knows I can't be gone
Call on me
On me
