

Misunderstood

Lucky Daye

We ain't gotta be all put together, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been tryna be clear in my feelings, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been overthinkin', we ain't really even gotta name this
We'd be so much better misunderstood (Understood)
We'd be so much better misunderstood

But you don't believe me
I try to do it, I push 'em back anytime you come and see me
Is it mine, all mine, all I know it just feel right
Don't it feel right? Ayy, my thoughts
Doin' what they wanna
Got me thinkin' that I might can't have it like I want you, oh

You know I'm no good at reasons
Hold it back, I tried, it just get me deeper

We ain't gotta be all put together, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been tryna be clear in my feelings, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been overthinkin', we ain't really even gotta name this
We'd be so much better misunderstood (Understood)
We'd be so much better misunderstood

You touch me and my whole mind just go blank
Try not to think, all my thoughts point your way
I'm missing you but I got no right
You're the only one I see, so much for open minds
Fightin' fuckin', fuckin' fightin'
That's the way we love it, damn, I love you
Playin' games just to get a reaction, pushin' buttons

You know I'm no good at reasons
Hold it back, I tried, it just get me deeper

We ain't gotta be all put together, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been tryna be clear in my feelings, girl
Maybe we're better misunderstood
I been overthinkin', we ain't really even gotta name this
We'd be so much better misunderstood
We'd be so much better misunderstood, oh
Maybe we're better misunderstood

Understood, oh, oh
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
