

Paralyzed

Lucky Daye

When it's said and done
Life is better sharing with someone
All in your head
Questioning what intuition says

As all the flowers
Any men in power
The birds, the stars, the sun, even past the moon
There's here and after
A void that matters
I found the truth just lyin' next to you

And I know you see me
Pair of eyes
How can we prepare for life?
Don't compete or compare with mine
Pair with mine
With those pair of eyes
I'm not leavin', paralyzed
Say love's easy, a pair of lies
Though you see me, terrified
Pair with mine, go pair with mine

It's hard to find the words for this, but here it goes
I've been defeated by a love like I have never known
His eyes are setting suns when looking, yes, it's going down
He stole my soul, without it, I'm a pile of skin and bones
His arms have now become my clothes, yes
In fact I only wore this dress so you could take it off
And when you touch me how I melt into those hands you got Intuition says, "Run for the door, save yourself"
But to leave both you and your heart in this room
I woulda played myself

Just like a word, I'm on his lips, I know I'm so possessive
I think I'm jealous of the diamonds hangin' on your necklace
And any bitch that tries to take you from me needs to know
It's nothing personal
But I'ma have to teach a ho
I'm so serious

Fuck it, I don't care what they see
I could confess that I am so obsessed
I know no one or nothing could change me
And if you'd like it, you're cordially invited to give me one of your babies
Ooh
Let's make lu-lu-lu-lu-love

And I know you see me
Pair of eyes
How can we prepare for life?
Don't compete or compare with mine
Pair with mine
With those pair of eyes
I'm not leavin', paralyzed
Say love's easy, a pair of lies
Though you see me, terrified

Pair with mine, go pair with mine

You smell like flowers

And baby powder

Fresh air off the rain and the morning dew

Someone to feel you breathin'

To hold your heart when you weepin'

I'll be makin' room

I'll be makin' room

For two
