

Soft

Lucky Daye

What's this spell controllin' me?
I'm breakin' down, think I need you
Flowers fall when you cross my mind
Sometimes I wish that I couldn't see
'Cause I undress you with the naked eye
Lose my mind, get butterflies
Seems so strange but I never complain
'Cause it feels like heaven, I can't lie
Can't leave you alone

Soft
I don't know the meaning, but I know what it could be
Like a whisper when I hear you talk to me
When it's cold out and it's hard to let go
You makin' me soft
So soft
Got me nervous, shakin' every time that you kiss me
Got me on your string like a symphony
Give me more life, and it's hard to let go

You and your phantom
It's drivin' me wild
You playin' games that you love, not to love till the lovin' is gone
You hide your location
While I'm waitin' at home
Know I'm just a pawn in your hand
A chink in your chain
A risk through my veins
I can't give it up, no

Soft
I don't know the meaning, but I know what it could be
Like a whisper when I hear you talk to me
When it's cold out and it's hard to let go
You makin' me soft
So soft
Got me nervous, shakin' every time that you kiss me
Got me on your string like a symphony
Give me more life, and it's hard to let go

As sweet as a gummy but I feel like a dummy
It's not how I planned it, now I'm empty-handed
Not used to the weather, it's below thirty
And it hit like a canon, and it knock me off balance
It's a challenge, and it comes with the damage
As sweet as a gummy but I feel like a dummy
It's not how I planned it, now I'm empty-handed
Not used to the weather, it's below thirty
And it hit like a canon, and it knock me off balance
It's a challenge, and it comes with the damage

Soft
I don't know the meaning, but I know what it could be
Like a whisper when I hear you talk to me
When it's cold out and it's hard to let go
You makin' me soft
(So soft)

Got me nervous, shakin' every time that you kiss me
Got me on your string like a symphony
Give me more life, and it's hard to let go
