

Touch Somebody (Interlude)

Lucky Daye

Please pardon my heart
I don't mean to get in my emotions
All my emotions, mm
Switchin' gears
Give to me my own devotion
Dizzy me with your motion, uh
And I think we're more than typical
Like we're way more than physical
And it hurts I'm so forgivable
I know you know I'm trippable

And I just wanna break out
Break out and touch somebody
Left in pieces, oh so miserable
Bounce back and then show it to everybody
Show somebody
